Elm Fork has developed into one of North Texas most challenging sporting clays courses located in a naturally wooded area, used by course designer Scott Robertson to create many unique and challenging targets that you and your team will be sure to enjoy. The tournament consists of teams of 4 shooters, shooting clays on one of two courses that are designed to simulate various game birds and test each hunter's skill.

Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. with coffee, and a breakfast snack. The "shotgun" start is at 9:00 a.m., followed by lunch, and a raffle of some incredible prizes, including a Beretta 391 Urika Sporting shotgun, and much, much more! This will be followed by a brief awards ceremony.

A word from Jody...

It is my privilege to invite you to join me and my family at Elm Fork Shotgun Sports Complex on Saturday, August 23, 2008, for the 2ND ANNUAL JODY DEAN SPORTING CLAYS CHALLENGE benefiting EXODUS MINISTRIES.

EXODUS MINISTRIES is making a difference in the lives of people in our community by giving them a new start. EXODUS restores families, provides these families with a home, and gives them the tools and instruction they need to break the cycle of despair and hopelessness that seems to follow those who have been incarcerated. In essence, by teaching Christian values, love and respect for others, along with essential personal skills, EXODUS gives people the chance to be productive and contributing members in society again by working to restore personal dignity and worth in adults and their children alike.

- * This year's Sporting Clays Challenge offers something for the whole family!
ADULTS – The Sporting Clays Challenge and a clay flush and a flurry game which earn raffle tickets for a chance at some amazing prizes!
- * KIDS (free of charge) - under professional supervision, your kids can sharpen their skills at Jr. Archery and a BB gun gallery
- * The older "kids" (ages 12 – 90) under professional supervision can shoot .22 rifles and pistols for a nominal charge.

LUNCH: picnic-style consisting of hamburgers, hot dogs, fried chicken, snow cones and watermelon (my favorite!) This mouth watering lunch is free to the Challenge participants, and only $7.50 for non-participant adults; $5 for children under 12 yrs of age.

And if that's not enough, this year we have as our special guest DAN CARLISLE. Dan is the 2007 Sporting Clays National Champion, an Olympic medalist and the 2008 U.S. Olympic Shotgun Team Coach. Dan will be shooting with one of our event teams so you can not only meet him, but see him in action!

Last year's Sporting Clays Challenge was a huge success. Thank you! 2008 offers to be even better! So, get your teams together, submit your entry forms and let's "RUN THE STATIONS FOR EXODUS" ... again!
